INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AWARENESS PROGRAMME

Session I: Introduction to IPR and its significance by Mr. Vijaykumar Shivpuje

The session covered various types of Intellectual Property Rights like Patents, Copyright, Industrial Design, Trademark, Trade Secret, Geographical indications, Plant Breeder's rights and others. Various local examples and illustrations related to various types of Intellectual Property Rights were included in the presentation.

Significance and relevance of various Intellectual Property rights for Science, Arts, and Agricultural products was discussed in detail. The importance of Intellectual Property Rights in academia, especially in relation to NAAC, NBA, and NIRF was also highlighted in this session.

The participants asked questions about plagiarism and copyright, patenting cost and tenure required for patenting processes.

Session II: Indian Patents Act, 1970 by Mr. Atul Khade.

This session covered the legal aspects of patenting, specifically Indian Patents Act, 1970. It included the patentability criteria and the non-patentable subject matter.

The legal basis of patents in India, its legislation and details about patenting procedures were covered in the session. There was detailed discussion on section 3 of the Indian Patents Act, 1970.
